

TLCS LEGAL ADVOCATE

DORNNAPHA SUKKREE, Esq.

ดรณภา สุกกรี

Managing Director

INDUSTRY EXPERIENCE

Governmental agencies, businesses, civil society, and individual clients.

ROLE EXPERIENCE

- Litigator,
- Legal Advisor on government procurement and public-private partnership
- Founder/Director of (MAST),
- Country Lead for Legal Impact Hub (Thailand) to deter and detect human trafficking and forced labor in Thailand

FOCUS

Government procurement, business and human rights, human trafficking, ethical sourced seafood.

YEARS EXPERIENCE

19 years as a lawyer

Educational Background:

- LL.M., Chicago-Kent College of Law, Illinois, the United States
- LL.B. (Magna Cum Laude), Thammasat University, Thailand
- Bachelor of Science, Kasetsart University, Thailand.

Dornnapha Sukkree is a licensed lawyer admitted to practice in Thailand. She has had extensive experiences advising clients on litigation matters both civil and criminal cases, as well as providing legal consultancy, gap analyses, and legal assessment on immense areas including laws on businesses, labor protection, human rights, administrative law, international and comparative law, and organized crimes such as laws on the suppression of bribery, human trafficking, and money laundering. Since 2014, Dornnapha has joined forces to drive positive changes to eradicate all forms human trafficking and forced labor in business supply chain of the Thai fishing sector. Dornnapha also represents victims of human trafficking, forced labor, and child exploitation in the trial and appellate courts. She is a litigator and legal advisor.

- At TLCS, Dornnapha provides supports for Thai governmental agencies and state enterprise in their feasibility studies, legal gap analyses, and governmental procurement of mega infrastructure development projects, and represent industries in trade remedies.
- At MAST, Dornnapha has driven positive changes in the Thai fishing sector by raising awareness, policy advocacy, launching programs with local NGOs and coastal community to address the root cause of human trafficking and to promote slave-free seafood, worker voice program, and sustainable fishery.

TLCS LEGAL ADVOCATE

TLCS LEGAL ADVOCATE

TLCS LEGAL ADVOCATE

July 2015 – present

Managing Director/ Legal Advisor

- Legal advisor relating to laws on Public-Private Partnership, government procurement, EEC, and administrative law to government agencies and state enterprises for infrastructure and business development projects, including the compliance and implementation of the laws.
- Represent industries on trade remedies.
- Litigation -- criminal and civil cases

The Multi-stakeholder Initiative for Accountable Supply Chain of Thai Fisheries (MAST)

Mar 2016 - present

Co-founder/Executive Director

- promote ethical-sourced/slave-free seafood, sustainable fisheries and empowering coastal communities to prevent Illegal, Unregulated, and Unreported Fishing or IUU fishing.
- Developing “the MAST Human Intelligence” mobile application to monitor the wellbeing of Thai and migrant workers working on fishing vessels at seas, and leverage the data gathered for the deterrence of human trafficking and forced labor at seas.
- Co-host an annual program called, “the judicial training on human trafficking, forced labor, and child exploitation,” -- the first judicial training was in June 2019, with the record of having 32 judges from the Human Trafficking Division attended the three-day event.
- Legal training for the frontline local NGOs and Thai/migrant workers in the fishing sector.
- Thai translation of UNODC’s Case Digest: Evidential Issues in Trafficking in Persons Cases. Thai version of the case digest can be found here https://www.unodc.org/documents/southeastasiaandpacific/Publications/2020/Case_Digest_Evidential_Issues_in_Trafficking_Thai.pdf
- English version of the case digest can be found here https://www.unodc.org/documents/human-trafficking/2017/Case_Digest_Evidential_Issues_in_Trafficking.pdf

Attorney-at-Law

Since 2002